

VLADIMIR BIRGUS

Prof. Vladimír Birgus (born 1954), photographer and historian of photography, is Head of the Institute of Creative Photography, Silesian University in Opava, Czech Republic. He is the author and co-author of 30 books, including ›Tschechoslowakische Fotografie der Gegenwart‹ (Cologne and Heidelberg 1990), ›Czech Photographic Avant-Garde 1918-1948‹ (Prague and Stuttgart 1999, Cambridge, ›Mass. and London‹ 2002), ›Photographer František Drtikol‹ (Prague, 2000), ›Jaroslav Rössler – Czech Avant-Garde Photographer‹ (Cambridge, Mass. and London 2003) and ›Czech Photography of the 20th Century‹ (Bonn, 2009, and Prague, 2010). His photographs have been exhibited in over 50 one-person exhibitions. He has curated and co-curated number of exhibitions in many museums and galleries in Europe and the USA including ›Modern Beauty – Czech Photographic Avant-Garde‹, 1918-1948 (Barcelona, Paris, Lausanne, Prague and Munich, 1998-1999) and ›Tschechoslowakische Fotografie des 20. Jahrhunderts‹ (Bonn 2009, with Jan Mlcoch).

www.birgus.com

Abstract

coming soon

OTHER

THE